Cost Management In Azure
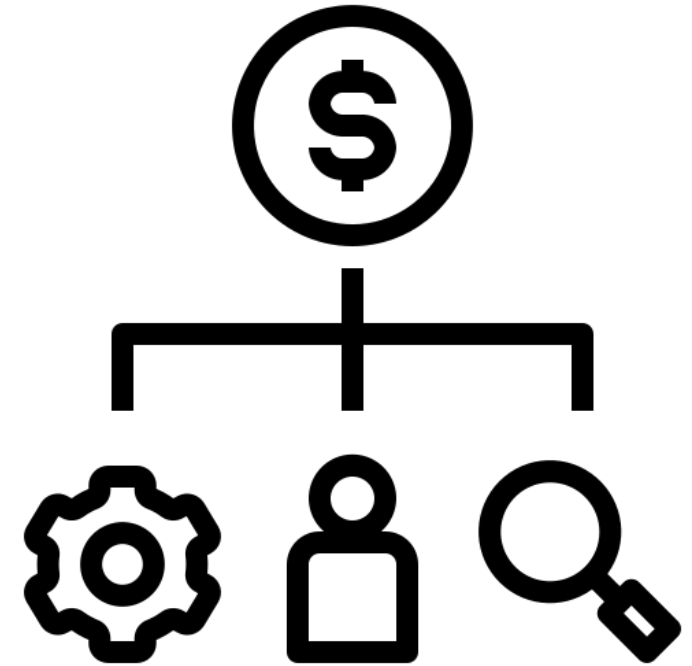

- ✓ Organizations should continuously monitor their resource usage, employ cost management best practices, and implement governance policies.

- ✓ Various tools and services for effective cost Management ✅

Factors That Can Affect Costs In Azure

Resource Usage	Primary driver of Azure costs is the consumption of Azure resources
Resource Types	Different types of Azure resources have different costs
Region	Azure resources deployed in different regions may have different pricing
Resource Provisioning	The way you provision resources can affect costs, i.e., Reserved & Spot instances
Resource Availability	Different service-level agreements (SLAs) for resource availability
Licensing	You can save on licensing costs with bring your own licenses (BYOL)
Type of Subscription	Many types of subscriptions, each with different pricing options
Third-Party Solutions	Azure Marketplace resource cost